

The Republican Committees of Augusta, Staunton and Waynesboro cordially invite you to attend the September 9th breakfast meeting of Second Saturday.

The guest speaker will be Delegate Nick Freitas. Nick is one of the Iron Men of the House of Delegates and has been mentioned as a possible candidate to run for the US Senate in 2018.

Nick resides in Culpeper and has been the Chairman of the Culpeper Republican Committee. He is a Constitutional Conservative, a veteran of the US Army, smart, articulate, young and a man of faith.

Nick Freitas is one of those few exceptional people who are the future of the Republican Party of Virginia. Curt Lilly, Matt Fitzgerald and Ken Adams strongly encourage you to hear and meet him.

Saturday, September 9th
Mrs. Rowe's Restaurant, Staunton
9:00 am

Reservations are requested as we need to inform the restaurant how many folks to expect. RSVP with the number attending to Ken and Sandy Adams at (540) 942-1880 or KenAdams@lumos.net.