

Roanoke City GOP

Friends, Roanokers, Republicans: please mark your calendars. We will be having our first meeting of the new year on January 29 at 6:30pm at the Grandin Co-Lab.

(This is NOT an official meeting call. Just a calendar reminder. An official call for the meeting will come out later.)

We will likely be approving the call for our mass meeting at the January 29 meeting.

Also, please keep in mind that City Council elections are coming up in May. If you know of any Republican who needs to be encouraged to raise the average level of intelligence and competence on City Council, please let me know who these people are!

Happy New Year!
