

Contrary to what you may have heard from the press, the meeting of the Amherst County Republican Committee meeting has not been canceled. The location has been changed but the time and agenda has not.

We will not be denied our right to peaceably assemble and to discuss whatever we choose, no matter the pressure from the Council on American-Islamist Relations. We invite you to join us at 7 PM for the business meeting and 8 PM for our speaker, Chris Gaubatz, speaking on Understanding the Threat of Islamist extremism.

Because the sheriff/s office is no longer available as our usual meeting place we have rented a meeting hall from Second Stage (194 Second Street, Amherst VA 24521, right across from the county administration building).

The public is invited. I hope to see you there.

Vance Wilkins

Chairman

Amherst County Republican Committee
